The Pierce Plan of Campuign.

The Wisconsis, one of the Administration "or gate," and of course more or less in its secrets favors us with the following plan of operations for the next Presidential Campaign:

for the next Presidential Campaign:

Mr. Grund, who is a warm administration many says that it may be treatly years before such another Chapters, at Washington, can be convened.—They are willing to vote any thing to extend Siavery, and to abase the North. After $200, 190 is offered for Coba, and should it be not copied, the Southern members calculate that the mational debt will be so corrowed.—$250,000,000 —that it would probably be twenty years before soother dellar would be allowed for the improvement of Wastern Harbors and river. This will much the free West. It is an ingenious plan to band the free States and it may be carried out. The same correspondent further says, that Mr. Sours will soon be re-inforced by two Commissioners with Southern sympathics, who will go out to make the offer of $200,000,000. We are evidently on the erro of street events; and the Presidential contract of Presidential contract iy on the eve of great events; and the Presidential converse of 1856 will be the nest embittere ever known. Pierce is a candiate for re-election

We think two, at last, of the Wisconsin's aver ments can be safely relied upon-one that Present is a condidate for a re-election," and the other, that "it may be twenty years before such another Congress" can be sent to Washington, is that which now dishenors the Republic, while fitly representing the false "democracy" of the day, We hope it will be furty. By the way, the Wisconsin fargers to ery, whether it intends to entiet under Prece & Co., in this notable crusade "to extend Slavery and abase the North"?

We do not learn even that a giant has been made to any company by Congress, but the above shows that the Administration wills they one should be made, and that with the present Congress, is the same thing as the grant itself, for the only use then appears to be in having a Congress, is to carry out the beheats of the Executive.

We remembered that not a Northstein Whig Representative in Congress sustained the Swindle. We remark to this fact with profound satisfaction. But, in doing so, we have no wish to disparage, in the least, the fearless and particle action of the Democrate who cast their votes in the same direction. So far from it, we me free to say that if they do not all stand on a par, the balance is on the side of the Democrate. They resisted temp lations with which their Whig associates were not beset. PLHASANT NEIGHBORS -- So successful have on Southern brethren been during the last few years by the aid of their Northern hirelings, in carrying out whatever plans of aggrandizement they were pleased to invent, that they have latterly anused themselves with all sorts of frunts, levelled at Northern men and ways. The latest develop ment of this we find a late number of the Richnend Enquirer, as follows :

"The relations between the North and th South are very analogous to those which sub-sisted between Greece and the Roman Empire sisted between Greece and the Aronan Emiliar, after the subjugation of Achale by the Consul Mumrius. The dignity and the energy of the Roman character, conspicuous in war and in politics, were not casily tamed and adjusted to the arts of industry, and literature. The degenerate and pliant Greeks, on the contrary, excelled in the hardieraft and politic professions.— We learn from the vigorous investive of Jave-nal, that they were the most useful and capable of servants, whether as pinps or pressors of rhetoric. Obsequious, dexterous and ready, the ersatile Greeks monopolized the besiness of tea retractile Greeks monopolized the business of teaching, publishing, and manufacturing, for the flowing Empire—allowing their masters ample leisure for the service of the State, in the Senate or in the field. The people of the Northern States of this tenforder, exhibit the same uptitude for the arts of industry. They excel as clerks, mechanics and tradesmen, and they have monopolized the hosiness of terching; publishing and pedithing.

PURTAGE CITY.-The Portage City Badger State gives a glowing account of the condition and prospecis of that fine town, introduced by a complaint that newspapers are doing it wrong by representing that the "Veeder claim" covers the whole town. We think that no papers in the state have done more to convey that impression than those of the locality, and are happy to find that they are at length satisfied that there is a Portege City, which the suits relating to the Yeeder claim can in no wise affect.

OLD KENTUCKY .- We well remember, for th OLD KENTUCKY.—We well remember, for the day was recent, when the name of time Commonwealth at once called up all that was honorable and manly noble and magnanimons. When her great statesman was alive, she was a name and a praise throughout the country. And though she was a slave State, we revend her the more, because her slavery was of a milder form, and she was thereby enabled to exert a controlling influence, over many of her sixter States of the South. Her sustesmen were liberal, ready to meet other sections of the country half way, and to stand manfully and honorably by all compacts and configronises. But "the glory has departed from Israel." By the recent vote on the Nobraska bill, it appears that not a son of that once gallant State could be found on the floor of Congress, who would raise his voice in defence of a measure in which that State but recently, seemed to who would raise his voice in determ of a measure in which that State but recently, seemed to glovy. A BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF MECHANISM.—We had tered into between him and his publishers to the pleasure of inspecting yesterday, at the store of Magic & Swain, a most ingenious piece of mechanism, lately imported from Switzerland .-Set in a very handsome gilt frame about 4 feet square, it presents to view the interior of a fashion. able clothing store, in which the proprietors, clerks, mechanics, and customers are busily engaged in their various avocations and nearly all coving. There are nineteen-figures in all. On advertisement in our paper, that an agency for

The Postmaster's forces were mustered in the back yard of an Irish grog shop on the North Side where, the preliminary proceedings were agreed upon; including that on the part of the government officials, who pledged themselvas to pay ton cents an hour to every man, and three cents an hour to every man, and three cents an hour to every boy under twolve years of age, who would take part in the procession.

Notwithstanding this inducement, and the free distribution of liquor, but sixty men and boys, all the ground sixty and their labor is enlivened by has probably paid his bill, is walking out to the city, at J. to a couple of cutters.

In a gallery on the second floor, a portly locking personage, bearing a striking likeness to Capt. RINES of the late Stevens' House, Japesville, is explaining his wishes to a man who has great trouble in measuring him around the water, and reeps on making the attempt. Another man, with his face turned to a mirror, is setting his bead and neck in various attitudes, as he tries on a fancy tie, in all of which mollons he is followed ashamed of himself. Cameion, like the Cossaels in the Russian armies, acted on the rear and flanks, of the procession, and was especially active in picking up the stragglers from the gotters, and whitpping in the small boys.

For the honor of the country, we here state that not an American could be found to take part in the procession.—Chicago Tribune.

by the court two dollars and costs amounting in all to four dollars and thirty cents, for last driving on Spring Street bridge during the forencoi The costs and fine were paid, the defendant swearing vengeance against the bridge-tender and abusing the Justice outrageously, his conduct requiring more patience than we have to keep him out of iail.

Application was made to the court in the aferpoon; for a warant against a man named Andrew Draiz, for disturbing the peace. The matter was referred to the City Attorney.

FART DRIVING AGAIN.-Two farmers from Green Lake, Marquette Co., named J. Cornwall and Stephen Louden, were brought up by the bridge tender of Walker's Point Bridge. The defendants were both returning across the bridge, one of them baving just unloaded his wheat at Newhall's Warehouse, the other was loaded with barley .; It was raining heavily at the time and they urged heir horses to get to the tavero, the Baltic House. They both stated their willingness to go with the officer; one of them officed a ten dollar bill to the bridge tender telling him to take that, if it would satisfy him; this was refused. They entered their appearance without process being issued, remarking that if it had not been for its raining burd they shouldn't have trotted, and that if they had known there was a fine, they wouldn't have trotted at all. They paid the fines, the lowest the court could inflict; which, together with the costs amounted to $2,62 each. Would a not fine of $1 each have been sufficient punishment in such a case ? But the ordinance will not permit it. These men were escaping from the rain and both of them wet through at the time of their arrest and we doubt whether there are many in the Council that wouldn't have "put on the hud," at such a time, -(Rep.).

THERE are several Tracts of Laudaud Lo's, which are actively electrical and well worth looking into. For instance, I would cally out a stead into the Lots in the Second Ward. The Lots which I am gol's to sell in line Ward are very bountful, sting a fine view of the entire City and also of the Late. The Second Ward property is certainly very desirable property and these who want to make Investments, I would advise to look hite property which is offered for sele. In all the other, Wardstie property offered is far below its value, compared with other cities. There enter was time to invest money to so good advantage as now. In 12 months from now property in and around Milwaukes will be wornt domine its present value, for by the time we shall have five Rathcadar numing into the City, also we expect to have one populecting with a Ferry across the Lake. Grayrs: —Although a stranger to you, I am not to your most valuation emiddine called Mexican Mustang Liniment. One year oge, I became afflicted with an obligation of the weathers while disabled states. A weathers while disabled states are not of my kines joint in Syraense—(the name court be given)—he examined it and told no to batic it with warm water, and rull it kwo or three times a day and it might go off without much trouble; if not, to find again. Some weeks passed, and it gray no bester. Then called on another doctor at Ocelial Epott; in told me nothing would help it but bligtering and larving. I could not consumt to this, and called on Pres. G. 27; they gave more mixture of indice, saferned, &c. I wised this and keld no good. I there used five or six dellars worth e'n intiment that had been recommended to me. All of those medicines I have been using for the hat ten mouths, thorough, and according to offeredictions, without the least possible good resulting from it. I then obtained some of your flackane Mustang Lamment; the first bottle, a 25 cent size, I perceived straightened my joint. I am now using my fourti-intitic, and my knee is nearly well.
